

December 2011

Sights and sounds point to our Savior, Lord Jesus Christ. We pray that all students will be given the opportunity to hear the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

This month at Lincoln High School the students will have an outreach before Christmas break in the Little Theatre. They will invite their peers to join them for a more focused time of talking about Jesus and sharing about the true meaning of Christmas.

The students at Joe Foss are having a dance battle outreach. A couple of students from Roosevelt are going to show off their break dancing moves, have other students dance, and then the students will all hear about God's gift to us, Jesus and how we all have gifts from God.

We praise the Lord for the hearts of the students. We are here to help facilitate ministry in the schools. We could not do it without them.

May you have a blessed Christmas season!

“Then the angel said to them, ‘Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.’ ” Luke 2: 10-11
